Good morning, I'm Edoardo, the guy you will host during my semester abroad.

I am a lively guy who often goes out to play outdoors, but also often stays at home. In life I really like being with my friends outside and also calling them on the phone: I'm not an extroverted guy who tends to talk to the people around him first, but the people I'm close with know everything about me and I open up very much with them.

I usually do many things in a day: in the morning I walk to school with my friends, I have fun with them and I follow the lessons; once school is over I go home to have lunch and then immediately go to play football or ping pong, once my activities are finished I also dedicate myself quite a bit to studying. When there's no school on the weekend I really like going out in the evening with my best friends, I really enjoy being with them and I'm always happy in company. I really like being both alone and in company, I'm never bored, I either rest and stay in bed or at the desk or I'm lively and productive, but almost never bored.

I'm really excited to be able to meet a sort of second family with whom I can share the same spaces that I previously shared with my family in Italy and honestly the idea of being away from home for so long doesn't scare me. My family is very close to me even if I usually don't talk to them about my private life. I talk to them very often at dinner and we discuss about a lot of things.

I especially want to thank you, future host family! Without your acceptance I would never have been able to have an important experience like this, I am truly happy to have found someone who likes my character and is willing to host me for such a long time! Thank you very much.

I can't wait to meet you and I'm sure we will spend six wonderful months together.

And as we say in Italy... a strong hug!

Edoardo
